SGC MESA CLUB GUIDELINES:

- 1. All students who complete the MESA program application process will automatically become members of the MESA Club.
- 2. Non-MESA program students must apply for club membership through the faculty/staff advisor.
- 3. All members must be currently enrolled SGC students in good academic and financial standing.
- 4. The MESA Club officers (President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer) will be appointed by the faculty/staff advisor, and officers will serve the entire year with exception to extenuating circumstances.
- 5. New officers will be appointed by August 31st each year, and the first year's meeting will be held by September 15th each year.
- 6. The MESA Club will meet at least once a month to discuss past, present, and future business, more meetings are at the discretion of the officers and advisor. All meetings and events, unless otherwise determined by the officers and advisor, will be held in the MESA Center (Stubbs Hall, Room 125).
- 7. The MESA Club will have at least one "members only" event each fall and spring semester including, but not limited to, field trips, workshops, open houses, etc.
- 8. The MESA Club will have at least one event open to all SGC students once a year including, but not limited to, field trips, workshops, open houses, etc.
- 9. The MESA Club will establish a local organization in need to commit their service to. The organization will be determined by the officers and advisor and may change depending on the needs of the organization and/or club.
- 10. All members will participate in club events. Participation includes, but is not limited to, planning, setting up, attending, breaking down, etc. If it is determined by the officers and advisor that a member isn't doing their part, they may lose their membership.
